

Talk on “The Union Budget 2022-2023”

AMS ASCW, Department of Economics, Commerce & Management, Hyderabad had organized a seminar in blended mode on 11th February, 2022 at 2pm on “The Union Budget 2022-2023”. Prof.M. Usha, Chairperson, AMSASCW presided over the seminar. The session started with the welcome address by Mrs. Shakuntala Jain, Coordinator, BBA. After the welcome address, Prof. Usha presided and conducted further proceedings. Dr. K.Jhansi Rani, I/ C e Principal AMSASCW spoke about the campus environment, various UG & PG programmes that this college has been offering and the new courses/programmes introduced in the academic year 2022-23.

Prof. A. Nakula Reddy, Director, SFC’s briefed about the union budget in a nutshell. Mrs. G.Hima Bindu, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics introduced the speaker to the gathering.

Kishore sir enlightened the students about Union Budget 2022-23 proposals, budget documents and other proposed amendments to the tax laws.

He has shared his invaluable knowledge from the process of framing the budgets under the Article 112 of the Indian constitution, the pattern union government has to present budget to the parliament and it has to get approval for appropriation bill and also finance bill. He also enlightened the students on the documents used in the union budget and few procedures associated with it. He even explained about PM Gatishakthi, and the 7 engines that drive PM Gatishathi. He enriched students even of digital currency.It was an excellent and knowledgeable webinar. Mrs.V.Shanthi, Coordinator, B.Com Self financed courses proposed the vote of thanks.Prof. M.Srinivas Sir, Secretary & Correspondent, other faculty members and the students from all the programmes of UG & PG participated and it was an educational Webinar.

