It was decided that in the IInd year i.e; Sem III & IV the syllabus will be as prescribed by TSCHE and OU. For the II Year i.e., Sem III & IV and III Year i.e., Sem V & VI for the batch 2020-21, 20% to 30% changes are permitted from parent university as per the NAAC requirements and also for good practice of the institution. This is done in accordance of the instructions issued by the management in a meeting held on 15th June 2020.

For the B.A II year students in our college statistics is the new subject and without basic knowledge, it is difficult for them to follow. Hence it is decided to include four topics, namely Definitions, Importance & Limitations of statistics in Sem-III Module I- and objectives or importance of time series analysis in Module V respectively. In Sem-IV Module II Cropping pattern & PDS and in Module V Science & Technology, Tourism.

For the final year Sem-V minor changes are made Agricultural Economics as DSC, Public Economics as DSC-I and Economics of Environment as DSC-II were approved. For Sem-VI International Economics as DSC, Development Economics as DSC-I, Industrial Economics as DSC-II and Financial Economics as optional paper were approved. In International Economics in Module -I, International Trade and its importance is included. In Development Economics Factors Hindering and Conducive to Economic Development in Module -I and Post 2000 Population Policy in Module-II are included for the better understanding of the subject. This is the addition to the prescribed syllabus.

Telangana Economics (SEC), Environmental sciences / Basics of Computer Applications in Economics (AECC), Rural Development (SEC-II), Data Analysis (SEC-III), Entrepreneurship and Development as SEC-IV were approved.
