Date of the event –24-08-2021

Location of the event –M V Hall

Name of the organisation collaborated-Safety & Security Department of Police ,Hyderabad

Event coordinator –NSS

The "Safety and Security of Women" seminar aimed to equip women with essential knowledge and skills to protect themselves from potential dangers. The speaker for the seminar was warmly welcomed to the session by Dr. K. Jhansi Rani, Principal, Head of the Departments, and students. Our respected principal addressed the gathering. Experts shared practical tips on personal safety, including being aware of surroundings, trusting instincts, and asserting boundaries.

The seminar emphasized the importance of self-defence techniques, empowering women to respond effectively in threatening situations. Attendees learned about resources available for support and assistance, such as helplines and community organizations.

Speakers highlighted the significance of reporting incidents of harassment or violence and seeking legal recourse when necessary. Discussions also addressed societal attitudes and behaviours that contribute to gender-based violence, advocating for cultural change and accountability.

Interactive sessions provided opportunities for participants to practice assertiveness and communication skills, building confidence in advocating for their safety and well-being.

Overall, the seminar served as a valuable platform for women to enhance their safety awareness, develop practical skills, and access support networks.

The seminar ended with our respected NSS Co-ordinator, thanking the resource person for the valuable inputs delivered and appreciating the commendable efforts taken by the college for initiating such a knowledgeable and informative session. Finally, the coordinator of the seminar expressed gratitude towards the management of the college for their constant support and encouragement to attend such enriching sessions. The seminar was well-received and informative

Name of Resource person - Mrs.Rohini ,lecturerAMS,CTE

Event coordinator – Legal Counselling Cell

“Legal Counselling Cell - Aashraya” of Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women organized a Guest lecture on “Women Property Rights in India “on 28/09/2021 in Room no 20 at 10 a.m. A guest lecture on "Women's Property Rights in India" was conducted, shedding light on the legal framework and societal perspectives. The speaker for the lecture was warmly welcomed by Ms. Y. Vasundhara, Coordinator, Women’s Cell. Ms. Y. Vasundhara, Coordinator, Women’s Cell introduced the speakers to the students. The lecture emphasized the historical context of gender disparity in property ownership and the evolution of laws to address it. It highlighted landmark legislations like the Hindu Succession Act, 1956, and subsequent amendments aiming to ensure equal inheritance rights for women. Discussions also delved into challenges women face in exercising these rights due to social norms and lack of awareness. Furthermore, the lecture emphasized the importance of education and legal literacy in empowering women to assert their property rights. Overall, it served as an enlightening session, advocating for the promotion of gender equality and women's empowerment in property matters. Feedback was taken from the students. They requested the counsellors to conduct more such programmes to create awareness among them. The programme was ended with vote of thanks by students.

Name of the event – Gender Sensatization and Equality

Date of the event –21/12/2021

Resource person - Mrs.B. Vijetha, Advocate

Event coordinator – Legal Counselling Cell

“ Legal Counseling Cell - Aashraya ” of Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women in collaboration with Legal Aid Clinic organized a seminar on “Gender Sensatization and Equality” on 21/12/2021 at 10 a.m in M.V Hall. The speaker for the seminar was warmly welcomed to the session by Dr. K. Jhansi Rani, Principal, Head of the Departments, and students. Our respected principal addressed the gathering. Epsitha of B.A First Year welcomed and introduced the speaker Mrs.B. Vijetha, Advocate. A seminar on "Gender Sensitization and Equality" was organized, aiming to raise awareness and promote gender equality. The session commenced with an overview of the concept of gender sensitization, emphasizing the need to understand and respect diverse gender identities. Participants engaged in discussions exploring the root causes of gender inequality, including societal norms, stereotypes, and discrimination. Various strategies were explored for sensitizing individuals towards gender issues, ranging from education and advocacy to policy interventions. The seminar also addressed the importance of challenging traditional gender roles and promoting inclusivity across all sectors. Case studies and real-life examples were presented to illustrate the impact of gender inequality on individuals and society. The seminar concluded with a call to action, encouraging participants to actively contribute to creating a more equitable and inclusive society where all genders are valued and respected.

Report

Save Girl Child on 25-01-2022

In the year 2022, a rally was organized to commemorate "Save Girl Child Day," aimed at addressing the pressing issue of gender inequality and advocating for the rights and well-being of girls. Participants from various backgrounds, including activists, community members, and government officials, came together to raise awareness and take action.

The rally featured passionate speeches and vibrant displays of solidarity, with participants carrying banners and signs advocating for the protection and empowerment of girls. They marched through the streets, chanting slogans and spreading messages of gender equality and the importance of valuing and supporting girls.

Speakers highlighted the significance of investing in girls' education, healthcare, and opportunities, emphasizing the positive impact it can have on communities and societies as a whole. They addressed the challenges of gender-based discrimination, including female infanticide, foeticide, and unequal access to resources.

The rally served as a call to action, inspiring individuals and communities to take concrete steps towards ending harmful practices and promoting gender equality. Through their collective efforts, participants reaffirmed their commitment to creating a world where every girl has the opportunity to thrive and fulfill her potential.

A Report Awareness Program On Adolescent Gynecological Problem

Name of the event –Awareness Program on Adolescent Gynaecological Problems

Date of the event –27-05-2022

Resource Person -Dr. T. Suchetha Lakshmi.,Associate professor,Obstetrics and gynecology dept. Government medical college siddipet.

Event coordinator –Women’s Cell

The "Awareness Program on Adolescent Gynecological Problems" lecture was a crucial event focusing on the specific health issues encountered by teenage girls. . The speaker for the lecture was warmly welcomed to the session by Women Cell coordinator .Expert in gynecology and adolescent health led discussions covering various topics, including menstrual health, hygiene, reproductive issues, and sexually transmitted infections (STIs).

Attendees gained valuable insights into maintaining good gynecological health through proper hygiene practices and healthy lifestyle choices. The seminar emphasized the importance of seeking timely medical care and guidance for any concerns related to gynecological health.

Interactive sessions allowed participants to ask questions and clarify doubts, fostering an open and supportive environment. Practical tips and resources were shared to empower adolescent girls to take charge of their reproductive health and well-being.

The seminar also addressed societal taboos surrounding menstruation and reproductive health, encouraging open dialogue and breaking down barriers to seeking healthcare.

Overall, the seminar served as a platform to educate and raise awareness about adolescent gynecological issues, empowering young girls with knowledge and resources to lead healthy and fulfilling lives.

They requested the counsellors to conduct more such programmes to create awareness among them. The programme was ended with vote of thanks by students
