Description	REPORT ON WORLD MUSIC DAY On June 21, 2019, Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College For Women celebrated World Music Day with a remarkable event that started at 11:00 AM, bringing together students, faculty, and music enthusiasts to honor the universal language of music. The event was graced by the presence of the chief guest, Sri Hanumanth Rao, a distinguished singer known for his contributions to the music industry and his ability to inspire young musicians. World Music Day, also known as Fête de la Musique, is a day celebrated worldwide to promote music in two ways: first, by encouraging amateur and professional musicians to perform in the streets under the slogan "Faites de la musique" ("Make music"), and second, by organizing free concerts, making all genres of music accessible to the public. Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College For Women embraced this spirit wholeheartedly, creating a platform for showcasing musical talents and celebrating the day with enthusiasm and joy. The event kicked off with a warm welcome speech that set the tone for the day, emphasizing the importance of music in connecting cultures and expressing emotions. Sri Hanumanth Rao, the chief guest, then took the stage, sharing insights into his musical journey, the challenges he faced, and how passion for music can transform lives. His speech was not only motivational but also a testament to the power of perseverance and dedication in the pursuit of musical excellence.

Following the inaugural speeches, a series of performances by students and faculty members showcased a diverse range of musical styles, from classical to contemporary, highlighting the rich tapestry of music and its universal appeal. These performances were a vivid illustration of the talent within the college and served as an inspiration for others to explore and express their musical abilities.

One of the highlights of the event was a special performance by Sri Hanumanth Rao. His melodious voice and emotive rendition captivated the audience, creating a memorable experience for all present. His performance was a reminder of the unifying power of music, transcending linguistic and cultural barriers to touch the hearts of listeners.

In addition to musical performances, the event included interactive workshops and seminars on various aspects of music, from its technical aspects to its emotional impact. These sessions provided valuable learning opportunities for students, offering insights into the world of music production, songwriting, and the history of musical genres.

As the event drew to a close, the sense of community and shared love for music was palpable. The successful celebration of World Music Day at Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College For Women not only showcased the talents of its participants but also reinforced the role of music in fostering connections, encouraging creativity, and enriching lives.

In reflection, the event on June 21, 2019, stands as a testament to the power of music to unite and inspire. It was a day filled with melody, learning, and celebration, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of those who attended and contributing to the global tapestry of World Music Day celebrations.

Description	Bathukamma, the floral festival celebrated by the women of Telangana, marks the beauty of nature and womanhood. On 3rd October 2019, the Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women embraced this tradition with a grand celebration on the hostel grounds. The event began at 1:00 PM and unfolded as a vibrant tapestry of cultural expressions, showcasing the rich traditions of Telangana. Event Overview: The hostel grounds were transformed with festive decorations, echoing the spirit of Bathukamma. This event not only celebrated the cultural ethos of Telangana but also aimed to foster a sense of community among students away from home, bringing them closer to their cultural roots. Highlights of the Event: Floral Arrangements: Central to the celebration was the crafting of Bathukamma, a pyramid-shaped floral arrangement that symbolizes the goddess Gauri. Students and faculty came together to arrange flowers, creating vivid and colorful Bathukammas, setting the stage for the festivities. Cultural Performances: The air was filled with traditional folk songs and dances as students dressed in vibrant sarees performed in circles around the

Bathukamma, paying homage to life and mother nature. These performances were not just displays of talent but also served as a bridge connecting the young generation with their heritage.

Traditional Attire Competition: Emphasizing the importance of traditional attire, a competition was held to celebrate the beauty of Telangana's cultural dresses. Students showcased their ethnic wear, turning the event into a visual feast.

Guest Speakers and Interactive Sessions: Esteemed guests and scholars were invited to speak about the significance of Bathukamma, enriching the attendees' understanding of the festival's deep-rooted cultural and spiritual significance. Interactive sessions further engaged the students in conversations about the importance of preserving such traditions.

Workshops: Workshops on making Bathukamma were organized, providing hands-on experience in crafting these floral arrangements. These workshops encouraged participation from all attendees, making it a communal learning experience.

Conclusion:

The Bathukamma celebration concluded with the immersion of the Bathukammas in water, symbolizing a prayer for universal prosperity and a reminder of the transient nature of life. It was a day filled with joy, learning, and cultural immersion, strengthening the bonds among the students and with their heritage.
