Mega Health Camp Organized by Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women

On July 20, 2024, Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women (AMSASCW) hosted a Mega Health Camp with a special focus on Lipedema, in collaboration with Ojas Hospitals. This event aimed to identify and treat Lipedema patients through diet prescriptions, exercises, and medications, rather than surgical interventions.

The camp saw the participation of several distinguished medical professionals - Dr. V.K. Srinagesh, Plastic and Cosmetic Surgeon, Dr. V. Sita Lakshmi, Skin and Gynecologist, Dr. Divya Malini, General Physician and Neurologist, Dr. Ravi Shankar Cardiothoracic Surgeon, Dr. Pradnya Kamble, Diabetologist, Dr. Ashwini Amareshwar, General Manager-Administration and Legal, Gleneagles Hospitals, India, Dr. Aishwarya, Resident Surgeon and Miss Globe India 2023, Dr. Vijaya Rao, M.D., USA, Dr. Vinay Nandi Coori, Director, CCMB, Dr. D.G. Narahari Sastry, Biotechnology Professor, IITH.

These specialists contributed their services to ensure the camp's success. The health camp focused on Lipedema, providing patients with alternatives to surgery through simple precautions. Alongside Lipedema tests, general tests such as blood pressure and diabetes checkups were conducted. Over 460 people registered for check-ups.

Students from various institutions actively participated in the event, including:

- Durgabai Deshmukh College of Physiotherapy
- Durgabai Deshmukh College of B. Sc. Nursing
- ISO Junior College
- AMSASCW

- AMS School of Informatics

- C. Ramchand Girls High School

These students, especially the volunteers from AMSASCW, played a crucial role in measuring Body Mass Index (BMI) and assisting patients throughout the camp. The camp commenced at 9:00 AM and concluded at 2:00 PM. This was followed by a valedictory session where doctors and students shared their experiences and insights from the day.

The main driving force behind the organization of this health camp were Shri D. Chakrapani, Chairman, Retired IAS, Dr. P. Rajini, Secretary & Correspondent, Dr. K.Karuna Devi, Academic Coordinator, Dr.A. Pramila, IQAC Coordinator, Dr. M. Sridevi, HoD, Department of Physical Education, Dr. K. Kiranmai, HoD , Department of Chemistry, Mrs. P.Sandhya Rani, Assistant professor, Department of Biotechnology. Their efforts were instrumental in making the health camp a success, providing valuable health services to the community.
