

Indian Constitution Day Celebration at Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Research Centre, Osmania University

On November 26, 2024, Indian Constitution Day was commemorated at the Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Research Centre, Osmania University, in collaboration with AMS Arts & Science College for Women and its NSS units. The event, held on the Ambedkar Research Centre campus, witnessed active participation from distinguished dignitaries, faculty, and students.

The program commenced with a floral tribute to the statues of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar and Jyotiba Phule, led by Prof. Kumar Molugaram, Vice-Chancellor of Osmania University and Professor, Department of Civil Engineering. In his inaugural address, Prof. Molugaram lauded the monumental contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the principal architect of the Indian Constitution, and emphasized its relevance in fostering justice, equality, and liberty.

The Registrar of Osmania University, Prof. G. Naresh Reddy (Department of Commerce), and the Officer on Special Duty (OSD) to the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. S. Jithender Kumar Naik, also delivered inspiring messages. Dr. Prof. B. Mangu, Director of the Ambedkar Research Centre, and the Director of the Minority Cell contributed to the deliberations, highlighting the enduring values enshrined in the Constitution.

Representing AMS Arts & Science College for Women were Academic Coordinator Dr. K. Karuna Devi and NSS Programme Officers Dr. Y. Vasundhara, Dr. R. Kiranmai, Mrs. B. Ramani, Dr. Saritha, and Mrs. Sandhya Rani, accompanied by 55 enthusiastic students.

The event included a solemn oath-taking ceremony where all participants pledged their commitment to uphold constitutional ideals. As a gesture of respect, AMS Arts & Science College for Women presented a copy of The Constitution of India to the Vice-Chancellor.

The program concluded with a group photograph, symbolizing the shared spirit and dedication of all attendees. The celebration served as a poignant reminder of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's legacy and the enduring principles of the Indian Constitution that continue to guide the nation's progress.
