

Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College For Women

Report on Osmania University 108th Foundation Day Celebrations

On 26th April 2025, Osmania University marked its 108th Foundation Day with grandeur at Tagore Auditorium, Hyderabad. The event was a significant occasion reflecting the university's long-standing commitment to academic excellence and social service. Among the attendees were NSS Programme Officer K. Sai Deepika and enthusiastic students from B.Sc. 1st year, who actively participated in the celebrations.

The program commenced with welcoming dignitaries and included cultural performances, speeches by esteemed guests, and a reflection on the university's rich legacy since its establishment in 1917. Students took the opportunity to engage with peers and faculty, enhancing their understanding of the institution's contributions to education and society.

The event not only celebrated the university's glorious past but also inspired students to contribute actively to its future. The presence of NSS members added a sense of community service and youth involvement to the celebration. The vibrant atmosphere and collective participation made the occasion memorable for everyone present.

