

National Librarian's Day 2025

Report

Date: August 12, 2025

Occasion: National Librarian's Day

Venue: Seminar Hall, AMS Arts and Science College for Women

National Librarian's Day is celebrated every year on August 12 in India to honor the birth anniversary of Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, the father of Library Science in India. This day acknowledges the crucial role played by librarians in promoting reading habits, knowledge-sharing, and managing information systems.

This year, the occasion was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women (AMS ASCW). The event was gracefully anchored by M. Madhumitha B.com General final-year student & Thanu Sri B.A Final Year.

The program began with a tribute to Dr. S.R. Ranganathan, emphasizing his Five Laws of Library Science and his pioneering contributions to the library system in India.

Dr. Rani Syamalamba, the Chief Guest, addressed the gathering and delivered an insightful talk on the utilization of e-resources, with special reference to MOOCs (Massive Open Online Courses). She emphasized the relevance of digital platforms in modern education and the evolving role of libraries.

An Elocution Competition was conducted on the topic "The Book I Liked in the Library / My Library."

Total Participants: 22 students

Total Attendees: 60 students

The competition was judged by Dr. J. Saritha and Mrs. P. Sarada from the faculty.

Prizes: First Meenakshi B.Com CA, Second Jayasree B.com CA, Third Lakshmi Bcom CA, and Fourth prizes P. Sahithi B.Com CA were distributed to the winners.

The Vice Principal appreciated the efforts of the library staff and stressed the importance of cultivating reading habits among students. A mini book exhibition showcasing rare and new books was also arranged, which attracted a large number of students and faculty members.

Dr. J. Saritha, the Convener of the Library Committee, explained the functioning of the library, including how to effectively use library services and e-resources. She encouraged students to take full advantage of both physical and digital collections available.

Mrs. P. Sarada, Lecturer in Mathematics, addressed the gathering and highlighted the transformative role of libraries in academic and personal development.

National Librarian's Day served as a meaningful reminder of the essential role libraries and librarians play in the academic, intellectual, and personal growth of individuals. The event was a celebration of knowledge, learning, and the evolving power of libraries in today's educational ecosystem. The program concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all speakers, participants, and organizers for making the event a grand success.
