

Report on Guest Lecture Programme Organized by the Department of Economics:

The Department of Economics successfully organized a Guest Lecture Programme with the objective of enriching students' knowledge and providing them with valuable insights from distinguished resource persons. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members.

The event commenced at 11:00 AM with a warm welcome extended to the guests by Ms. N. Nagamani, M.A. II Year. This was followed by the Prayer and Lighting of the Lamp, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge and wisdom.

Ms. Spoorthi, B.A. II Year (EPPsy) delivered a brief presentation on the Historical Evolution of the Indian Administrative Service (IAS), setting an informative tone for the sessions ahead.

The first guest lecturer, Sri Chodavarapu Prabhakar, Retired Deputy Director, Youth Services, Government of India, was introduced by Ms. Shaik Shabana, M.A. II Year. His lecture was highly insightful. He shared his vast administrative experience, spoke about the responsibilities of civil servants, and motivated students to cultivate discipline, dedication, and a spirit of public service. The speaker provided an insightful overview of India's development journey since independence, highlighting major policy milestones, sectoral transformations, and strategic initiatives aimed at achieving the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047. The lecture encouraged students to critically analyze economic growth in relation to social development and national aspirations.

The second guest lecturer, Dr. Sowjanya, Assistant Regional Director, IGNOU, was introduced by Ms. G. Manyasree, B.A. II Year (EPPsy). Delivering her lecture, she provided valuable guidance on higher education opportunities, distance learning, and career pathways available to students. Her session encouraged students to pursue lifelong learning and make informed academic choices. The speaker elaborated on the relevance of ethical administration, grassroots governance and pro-poor service delivery. Special emphasis was laid on Sankaran's model as a practical and human-centered approach within civil services, inspiring students to consider public service as a means of social transformation.

The programme concluded with a heartfelt Vote of Thanks proposed by Ms. Vishnu Priya, M.A. II Year. She expressed sincere gratitude to Shri D. Chakrapani (Retd. IAS), Honorable Chairperson of AMSASCW; Principal Prof. K. Karuna Devi; Vice Principal Prof. Y. Vasundhara; Asst. Prof. G. Hima Bindu, HoD, Department of Economics; Ms. Manasa and D. Vasantha, Faculty members of the Department of Economics; along with faculty from other departments and students from all streams graciously.

The event came to a close with the National Anthem marking the successful completion of a meaningful and educational programme.

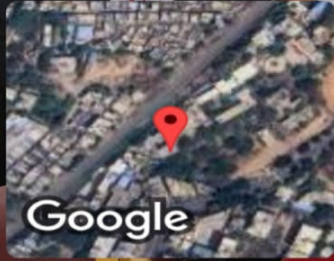

Overall, the guest lectures proved to be highly informative and inspiring, offering students practical exposure and motivating them to strive for academic and professional excellence. The Department of Economics remains committed to organizing such programmes to enhance students' knowledge and holistic development.

GPS Map Camera

Hyderabad, Telangana, India 🇮🇳

2-2-4/1, Osmania University Road, Vijay Nagar, Vijay Nagar,
Osmania University, Amberpet, Hyderabad, Telangana
500044, India

Lat 17.406364° Long 78.515542°

Thursday, 29/01/2026 11:26 AM GMT +05:30