About the College

Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for women, a premier institution dedicated to academic excellence and women's empowerment. Founded in 1968 by our esteemed founder, the college has been shaping confident, competent, and socially responsible women for over five decades. Guided by our vision, "Building Better Lives for Women through Education," we offer diverse Undergraduate and Postgraduate programmes including B.A., B.Com, BBA, B.Sc, M.Com, M.Sc, M.A., and skill-based courses like BBA (Health Care). With around 2000 students, we focus on holistic development through academics, research, leadership, and community engagement.

At AMS, we nurture knowledge, values, and life skills to prepare women to lead and contribute meaningfully to society.

About the Department of Economics

Established in 1968, the Department of Economics at Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts & Science College for Women is dedicated to academic excellence, critical inquiry, and research-driven learning. It builds strong analytical and practical foundations in Economics, preparing students to address real-world developmental challenges. The introduction of the M.A. (Economics) programme in 2020 further strengthened its commitment to advanced study and research.

About the Department of Commerce

Established in 1968, the Commerce Department proudly became the first women's college in Andhra Pradesh to introduce the B.Com programme. Committed to academic excellence and industry relevance, the department builds strong foundations in commerce, management, and entrepreneurship while fostering leadership, innovation, and global employability. Through bridge courses, practical learning, industrial exposure, an active Entrepreneurship Development Cell, and continuous curriculum updates including CBCS, it offers diverse programmes such as B.Com (General, Computers, Business Analytics, Tax Procedures) and M.Com. The department strives to shape confident, competent, and socially responsible graduates equipped for higher education and professional success.
