

Report on the Talk on “BUDGET 2026 – 2027”

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women organized a guest lecture on the Union Budget 2026–2027 on 7th February 2026 at 10:30 a.m. in MV Hall. The session was delivered by Sri Ch. V. Sai Prasad, Honorable Secretary & Secretary, AMSASCW.

The program began with a formal welcome to the esteemed speaker by the IQAC Coordinator, who highlighted the importance of understanding the Union Budget in the context of commerce, management, and economic studies. Faculty members and students from various departments attended the session with great enthusiasm.

In his insightful address, Sri Ch. V. Sai Prasad elaborated on the key features and highlights of the Union Budget 2026–2027. He discussed the government’s priorities in areas such as economic growth, infrastructure development, digitalization, women empowerment, education, employment generation, and support to MSMEs and the agricultural sector. He also explained fiscal policies, revenue generation strategies, tax reforms, and expenditure allocations.

The speaker emphasized the relevance of the budget for students, particularly those pursuing commerce and management, encouraging them to analyze policy decisions critically and understand their practical implications. His clear explanations and real-time examples made complex economic concepts easy to understand.

The session concluded with an engaging interactive discussion, where students actively participated and clarified their doubts. The talk proved to be highly informative and beneficial, enhancing the participants’ knowledge about the nation’s financial planning and economic direction.

The program ended with a vote of thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to Sri Ch. V. Sai Prasad for his valuable guidance and to IQAC for organizing such an enriching academic event.
