The A.V. College of Arts, Science & Commerce (AUTONOMOUS) Department of English successfully organized a One-Day Workshop on “Crafting Research Papers in Language & Literature: A Step-by-Step Workshop” on 19th September 2025. The event was well-structured and informative, aiming to provide students and scholars with practical insights into research methodology and academic writing.

The programme commenced at 9:30 a.m. with the inaugural session led by Ms. G. Persis Sunitha. This was followed by the Vandemataram presented by Ms. Ch. Mercy, Ms. Rushika, Ms. Ellen, and Ms. Vaishnavi. At 9:35 a.m., the dignitaries were invited to the stage, which included Dr. K. Gautami (Correspondent, AVES), Ms. M. Vidyulatha (Head, Department of English), Dr. Mrudula Lakkaraju (Head, Department of English, P.G. College), Dr. Ch. Rajalingam (Principal, A.V. College), and Dr. P. Padma (Vice-Principal, A.V. College).

The formal session began with a Welcome Address by Ms. M. Vidyulatha (HOD, English) at 9:45 a.m., followed by addresses from the dignitaries: Dr. K. Gautami, Dr. Ch. Rajalingam, and Dr. P. Padma. The introduction of the Resource Person was given by Ms. Rushika at 9:56 a.m., and the session was handed over by Dr. Mrudula Lakkaraju.

The academic sessions began at 10:00 a.m., with the first session focusing on “What is a Research Paper?” which provided an overview of dissertations, chapters, monographs, and books.

After a short tea break, the second session on “Components of a Research Paper” was conducted from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

The third session, held from 12:15 p.m. to 1:15 p.m., emphasized Style Sheets: MLA 09 and APA 07, enabling participants to familiarize themselves with standard referencing styles.

After lunch, the fourth session (1:15 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.) included an Actual Writing Exercise of Research Papers, offering hands-on experience in academic writing.

The Valedictory Session commenced at 2:15 p.m., followed by the Vote of Thanks proposed by Ms. V. Vaishnavi. Certificates were distributed, and feedback was collected from participants. The workshop concluded with the National Anthem at 4 p.m.

Overall, the workshop was highly engaging and provided participants with valuable knowledge and skills in research paper writing. It was a successful academic initiative by the Department of English, fostering research culture among students and faculty.
