Gandhian Studies – Gandhi Bhavan Program Report Organized by Management and Faculty Department

Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women.

Date: Friday, 11th July 2025

A special program was organized by Gandhian Studies at Gandhi Bhavan, Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women, Amberpet, Hyderabad, to honor the life and contributions of freedom fighters and share the teachings from sacred texts. The event brought together faculty, students, and guests in an atmosphere of unity and patriotism.

The program reached a meaningful climax with inspiring speeches delivered by faculty members. They shared stories and insights about India's great freedom fighters such as Mahatma Gandhi, Durgabai Deshmukh, Mangal Pandey, Chandrashekar Azad, and many more. Their words stirred deep patriotic feelings and reminded everyone about the immense sacrifices made during the freedom struggle.

In addition to faculty contributions, students played a vibrant and active role in making the event engaging and informative. Many students gave heartfelt speeches about national leaders, recited patriotic poems, and performed soulful songs that captured the spirit of independence and unity.

An integral part of the event was the spiritual harmony portrayed through the reading of holy books — verses from the Bhagavad Gita, the Quran, and the Bible were recited with devotion and respect. This beautifully emphasized the value of secularism and interfaith unity, echoing Gandhiji's beliefs in tolerance and peaceful coexistence.

Overall, the program not only honored our past heroes but also inspired everyone present to live by their principles and continue striving for a united, peaceful, and developed India. The program successfully celebrated the essence of Gandhian philosophy, secular values, and the spirit of freedom. Students from different years participated enthusiastically, making the event vibrant and meaningful and great speech by Sarada mam and Saritha mam

Closing Note

The program came to an end with a peaceful and devotional singing of “Ram Dhun” by the faculty, filling the atmosphere with serenity and spiritual bliss. The chant reminded everyone of Gandhiji’s values of truth, simplicity, and devotion.

Report on Gandhi Bhavan Meeting – 12th September 2025

The Gandhi Bhavan Meeting was successfully conducted on 12th September 2025 at Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts and Science College for Women, organised by the Department of English. Students from various departments participated with great enthusiasm, making the event both meaningful and successful.

The programme was graced by Dr. K. Karuna Devi, Principal of the College, who attended as the Chief Guest. Also present were Dr. Y. Vasundhara, Vice Principal; Ms. P. Rajyalakshmi, HoD, English Department; and Mrs. Sarada from the Mathematics Department, who also served as the coordinator of the Gandhi Bhavan meetings. Ms. Aliveni, Head of the Telugu Department, was also present. Their presence added immense value to the event.

The programme commenced with an anchoring introduction by Purnima (BA EPP II Year), who warmly welcomed the gathering. Dignitaries were invited to the stage, and the session began with a prayer song performed by Sowmya (BBA II Year) and Udayasri (BA EPP II Year), setting a serene tone for the proceedings.

Following the prayer, Ms. Rajyalakshmi, HoD addressed the audience, highlighting the significance of such meetings. This was followed by a speech from Muskan (MSCS II Year), who spoke on Swami Vivekananda's message for today's youth. Her words deeply resonated with the audience.

Dr. Y. Vasundhara then captivated everyone with a soulful and devotional song, adding a spiritual essence to the gathering. Later, Mrs. Sarada, the Gandhi Bhavan Meeting Coordinator, addressed the students with an inspiring and thought-provoking speech on the importance of Gandhi Bhavan meetings and their relevance for today's youth.

The programme also included spiritual readings from different faiths:

Sirisha (BA EPP II Year) read from the Bhagavad Gita,

Samrah (BBA II Year) read from the Quran, and Bluelah Blessy (BBA II Year) read from the Bible.

Each reading was met with appreciation and applause, signifying unity in diversity

Ms. Joy, faculty member of the English Department, motivated the students with words of encouragement for their active participation and rendered a devotional song.

Finally, the Chief Guest, Prof. K. Karuna Devi, shared her inspiring and motivating words. She appreciated the students for their enthusiastic involvement and urged them to take part in more such events in the future.

The event concluded with a Ram Dhun, led by Mrs. Sarada, which brought the gathering together in harmony. The prayer was followed by words of thanks extended to all participants for their presence and contributions. The programme beautifully conveyed the message of peace, unity, and kindness.

The Gandhi Bhavan Meeting proved to be a memorable and enriching experience, leaving everyone with a strong sense of togetherness and responsibility towards promoting harmony in society.
