Report on NSS Volunteers' Participation in WETA India Launch Programme

Date: 24th June 2026

Venue: Jubilee Hills Convention Centre, Hyderabad

The NSS Units of AMS Arts and Science College for Women actively participated in the WETA (Women Empowerment Telugu Association) India Launch Programme held at the Jubilee Hills Convention Centre, Hyderabad, on 24th June 2026.

A total of 110 NSS volunteers participated in the programme under the guidance of the NSS Programme Officers, Ms. P. Rajyalakshmi, Mrs. Ramani, Ms. Vasantha, and Ms. Lakshmi Himaja. The programme marked the official launch of the India chapter of the Women Empowerment Telugu Association (WETA). The organization aims to promote women's leadership, entrepreneurship, education, skill development, financial independence, and social empowerment. The inaugural event was graced by Telangana Ministers Sri Ponnab Prabhakar and Sri Vivek Venkataswamy, along with Telangana Jagruthi President Smt. Kalvakuntla Kavitha. The dignitaries were welcomed by WETA Founder and Chairperson Smt. Jhansi Reddy.

The speakers emphasized the importance of women's education, entrepreneurship, leadership development, financial independence, and social participation. They highlighted the need to create greater opportunities for women to excel in various fields and contribute meaningfully to society. WETA India also shared its vision of conducting skill development programmes, mentoring sessions, leadership workshops, awareness campaigns, and social outreach initiatives in both urban and rural areas to strengthen women-led social transformation.

The NSS volunteers actively participated in the programme and gained valuable insights into women's empowerment, leadership, and community development. The event proved to be highly informative, inspiring, and educational, motivating the volunteers to contribute towards gender equality and social progress.

At the conclusion of the programme, all participants were provided with participation certificates, refreshments, lunch, and transportation facilities. The volunteers expressed their appreciation for the opportunity to attend such a meaningful event and described the programme as enriching, motivational, and highly beneficial.

Overall, the participation of the NSS Units in the WETA India Launch Programme was a memorable learning experience that enhanced the volunteers' awareness of leadership, empowerment, and social responsibility.

WETA India launched in Hyderabad to promote women's leadership

Hyderabad: The India chapter of the Women Empowerment Telugu Association (WETA) was formally launched at a grand ceremony held at the Jubilee Hills Convention Centre in Hyderabad, marking a significant step towards promoting women's empowerment, leadership, and social advancement.

WETA, which has been actively supporting women's development, entrepreneurship, networking, and leadership initiatives in the United States, has now expanded its activities to India with the aim of creating greater opportunities for women across various sectors.

The inaugural event was attended by Telangana Ministers Ponnam Prabhakar and Vivek Venkataswamy, along with Telangana Jagruthi President Kalvakuntla Kavitha. The dignitaries were welcomed by WETA Founder and Chairperson Jhansi Reddy.

Addressing the gathering, speakers emphasized the importance of empowering women through education, entrepreneurship, financial independence, and leadership training. They noted that women are excelling in diverse fields and stressed the need for platforms that encourage their growth and participation. Jhansi Reddy said WETA India aims to empower women through skill development, mentoring, awareness campaigns, leadership workshops, and social outreach programmes. She added that the organisation seeks to build a strong network of women leaders capable of driving positive social change.

WETA India plans to undertake initiatives in both urban and rural areas, focusing on education, health awareness, entrepreneurship, and professional development. Participants expressed confidence that the organisation would play a key role in advancing gender equality and inclusive development across the country.
