Conclusion

The Prajakala Jathara Programme was a meaningful and enriching experience for the students and NSS volunteers of Andhra Mahila Sabha Arts & Science College for Women. The programme encouraged students to participate actively in cultural and socially relevant activities and provided opportunities for interaction, learning, awareness-building and community engagement.

The enthusiastic participation of the students and volunteers contributed significantly to the success of the three-day programme. The involvement of the NSS volunteers also reflected the spirit of “Not Me But You”, emphasising service, responsibility, teamwork and active participation in community-oriented programmes.

The college appreciates the efforts of Mrs. Vimalakka for organising the Prajakala Jathara and providing students with an opportunity to participate in such a meaningful cultural and social initiative.
